DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

Altrincham & Bowdon Civic Society is the data controller (contact details – see page 4). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Altrincham & Bowdon Civic Society complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees, volunteers or supporters;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To send you legal notices and inform you of news, events and activities.

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities, services and process your gift aid donations;
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out only by the Altrincham & Bowdon Civic Society Data Controller or their representative;
- The processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with the aims of the society);
- There is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the Altrincham & Bowdon Civic Society in order to carry out a service to other members or for purposes connected with the Society. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the Society with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data ?

We keep data only for as long as the person or persons remain members of the Society. In the case of non members such as volunteers or supporters we will keep their data only for as long as they are associated with the Society or actively advise us otherwise.

Specifically, we retain gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate.
